O.C. Drowning Prevention Task Force to Hold End of Summer Media Event with Mock Drowning and Rescue

Who: As the summer season ends, members of The Orange County Drowning Prevention Task Force, Orange County Fire Authority, and Care Ambulance, will demonstrate the importance of water safety with a mock drowning and rescue.

When: Wednesday, August 30 at 10 a.m.
Media staging and the ability to get B-roll begins at 9:30 a.m.

Where: William Woollett Jr. Aquatics Center
4601 Walnut Avenue, Irvine

What: Before Labor Day Weekend, the traditional end of summer, partners in drowning prevention will demonstrate how quickly a child can drown. Speakers will highlight this year's drowning prevention outreach efforts and remind everyone that drownings occur year round.

Scheduled Speakers

- Rob Williams, Chairman, Drowning Prevention Task Force and Chief, Newport Beach Lifeguards
- Todd Spitzer, Public Safety and Outreach Chairman, Drowning Prevention Task Force, Third District Supervisor
- Donald P. Wagner, Mayor of Irvine
